Leading local historian and author ADRIAN GRAY will lead a morning walk around the historic village of Gringley-on-the-Hill and its impressive landscape.

- Two dates – 14th and 21st October
- 10am until approx. 1230; coffee break at the church (donations)
- Visit the prehistoric 'beacon' with its amazing views, hear stories about interesting people from Gringley; see the church with an option to ascend the tower
- Walking distance approx. 2-3 miles
- Cost £7.50 per head, includes contribution to Gringley church

NEW VIDEO: watch our new history video, explaining the importance of the Gainsborough separatists including several who came from Nottinghamshire. They helped the 'Pilgrims' to escape, started the Baptists, and played a key role in developing thinking about religious liberty. Watch it on our channel here:
