OUR NEW APPROACH IN THE POST-COVID ENVIRONMENT

HISTORY WALK AND TALK: LANEHAM 20TH AND 27TH NOVEMBER

Leading local historian and author ADRIAN GRAY will lead a morning walk around Laneham, starting at its fascinating church with the Markham Memorials, then exploring the story of the village's sometimes fractious relationship with the Trent....plus a few stories of its people, good and bad.

- 20th or 27th November
- Meet at Laneham church: 10am
- Walking distance approx. 2 miles, generally easy ground but can be muddy
- Cost £7.50 per head, includes 75% contribution to St Peter's church funds

COVID: we have a full risk assessment and as a tourist organisation are authorised for outdoor activities.

Reserve by email (talksandtours@gmail.com), by phone to Maggy on 07950 167821, including your contact details. Once confirmed you can also pay by internet.

WEATHER: if constant very heavy rain (rather than light drizzle) is forecast the night before, then we may contact you to re-arrange the walk.
