

Now we are all trying to get out a little more, and clubs, classes and societies are getting back up and running, here at GOGA we would love to find the perfect activity for you. If you have been trying to keep active during lockdown and want to find new ways to continue this we will do our best to find the right activity for you. If you have struggled to stay active in lockdown, now is the perfect time to find something new to help shake off the lockdown blues. If the thought of starting something new seems intimidating, don't worry our activity officer can accompany you and provide a friendly face while you settle in and make new friends.
