

Bassetlaw Food Bank – Volunteer Sewist

- Would you like to volunteer to help the community where you study, live or work?

Our volunteers carry out a crucial role helping Bassetlaw Food Bank raise funds to support people in Bassetlaw experiencing food insecurity.

This role will provide you with the opportunity to be creative, learn new skills or use and develop existing ones.

If you have a few hours to give we are looking for keen, amateur, experienced or interested sewists to help us turn donated garments and textiles into one-of-a-kind pieces. We will then sell these pieces to raise money for the charity. It can be as complicated as making a new garment out of a pair of curtains or as simple as adding some decorative touches to existing apparel. Volunteers can turn shirts into bags, or curtains into gift items, letting their imaginations guide them.

We're looking for people to get involved, to help us deliver our services for people in our communities who need them and to ensure this vital resources for the future.

- We offer an induction into the role.
- This is a volunteer role, but all reasonable expenses are reimbursed.
- Materials and tools will be supplied, you just need creativity!
- This role is based at our shop in Retford, at Buttermarket House.

People from all backgrounds are welcome and we aspire to have a diverse team that reflects our clients and community.
